U.S. Treasury Department
 Secret Service Division
 Office of Chief
 Washington D.C. Nov 27th 1885.

Hon. John K. Valentine
 U.S. Attorney
 Philadelphia Pa.

Sir:

Operative Scanlan of this Division having represented to this office, that, in the matter of the abstraction of the silver bar from the U.S. Mint in Philadelphia, in the cause of public justice, it is necessary to employ a man, who is or can become intimate with certain suspected parties, to the end that facts may be elicited by which the guilty parties in that unlawful transaction may be indicated.

This Division has no man it can spare for the work, nor can it pay the per diem and expenses of an agent on such class of work.

I have no doubt as to the correctness of the judgment of Mr. Scanlan as to what is necessary to attempt to win success and unite with him in the recommendation that such a person be employed for the purpose named, under the dual guidance of the Superintendent of the U.S. Mint and myself.

I am

Very respectfully
 James J. Brooks.
 Chief
